Plaintiffs - Appellants,

versus

PEERLESS INDEMNITY INSURANCE COMPANY, a foreign insurance company,

Defendant - Appellee.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia

(December 17, 2013)

Before TJOFLAT, HULL and MARCUS, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:

This is a suit on a fire insurance policy. The insurance company, Peerless, denied coverage on the grounds, among others, that plaintiffs, JC&C and James and Jeanne Marie Helfrich, made material misrepresentations and failed to produce requested documents, thereby voiding the policy's coverage.

Following discovery, Peerless moved the District Court for summary judgment. The court granted the motion and gave Peerless judgment. Plaintiffs now appeal arguing that material issues of fact precluded summary judgment. The District Court rejected their argument, and we do as well.

AFFIRMED.
