Appeals from the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida
D.C. Docket No. 6:19-cv-00445-PGB-LRH

Before WILLIAM PRYOR, Chief Judge, and ROSENBAUM and BRASHER, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:

This putative class action appeal turns on a question about Florida’s personal injury protection statute. All parties in this appeal asked us to certify that question to the Supreme Court of Florida, and we did. See Revival Chiropractic LLC on behalf of Padin v. Allstate Ins. Co., No. 21-10559, 2022 WL 1799759, at *1 (11th Cir. June 2, 2022). The Supreme Court of Florida answered our question in Allstate Insurance Company, et al. v. Revival Chiropractic LLC, No. SC2022-0735, ___ So. 3d ___ (April 25, 2024).

In light of the Supreme Court of Florida’s answer to our certified question, all parties agree that we should reverse the district court’s judgment and direct the district court to enter summary judgment in favor of Allstate Insurance Company and Allstate Property & Casualty Insurance Company. Moreover, Revival Chiropractic LLC moves to dismiss its cross-appeal.

Having reviewed the decision of the Supreme Court of Florida, we agree with the parties. The cross-appeal of Revival Chiropractic LLC is DISMISSED. The judgment of the district court is REVERSED, and the district court is DIRECTED to enter judgment in favor of Allstate Insurance Company and Allstate Property & Casualty Insurance Company.

The parties shall bear their own costs.
