MICHAEL P. HUNTER,

Petitioner-Appellant,

versus

WARDEN,

Respondent-Appellee.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Southern District of Georgia
D.C. Docket No. 4:19-cv-00316-RSB-CLR

Before JORDAN, BRANCH, and LUCK, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:

Michael P. Hunter, a Georgia state prisoner proceeding pro se, appeals the district court's denial of his 28 U.S.C. § 2254 petition for writ of habeas corpus.

The appeal is untimely. Because judgment was entered on November 24, 2020, the 30-day statutory deadline required Hunter to file a notice of appeal on or before December 28, 2020. See 28 U.S.C. § 2107(a); Fed. R. App. P. 26(a)(1), (3), (6) (explaining that, if the last day of an appeal period is a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, or if the clerk's office is inaccessible, then the period runs until the first accessible day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday); Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(a)(1), (3), (6) (same). But Hunter's notice was not deemed filed until July 1, 2026. See Fed. R. App. P. 4(c)(1) (providing that, under the prison mailbox rule, a pro se prisoner's filing is deemed filed when they deliver it to prison officials for mailing through the prison's mail system); Jeffries v. United States, 748 F.3d 1310, 1314 (11th Cir. 2014) (explaining that, if the date the filing was delivered to prison officials is unknown, we assume that a prisoner delivers the filing on the date they signed it absent contrary evidence). The notice of appeal is untimely and cannot invoke our appellate jurisdiction. See Green v. Drug Enf't Admin., 606 F.3d 1296, 1300-02 (11th Cir. 2010).

Accordingly, this appeal is DISMISSED, sua sponte, for lack of jurisdiction. All pending motions are DENIED as moot.
